Duncan: Cal

From the beginning of the Roman Cal., like most others, was a powerful, political tool that governed religious holidays, festivals, market day, and a constantly changing schedule of days when it was fas (legal) to conduct judicial and official business in the courts and government (dies fasti). The all important lyt of dies fasti was 1st controlled by Roman kings & then in early republic days by the author's father, for advice after the press & author's kept the calendar secret, giving them an advantage, not a disadvantage, and P.E.S.

The manuscript dated in 3045e when P.E.S., C.V.E.I.U.S.
P.L.A.I.U.S. - ~~the~~ was a judge (who should be high office) prepared a copy of the Code that determined the calendar and printed it in a series of books in the middle of the 17th century. P.E.S. in the 18th century. The press & secreted the calendar a public discovery. But the press returned the right & control when to secret in the calendar
